Dear Sir/Madam

TEMPORARY EVENT NOTICE – OBJECTION

Applicant: Luke Richards
Premises: Decades, Old Post office Building, Front Street, Consett
Event – Date and Time: 30th June 2012 (0300 – 0500)
Date Notice Received: 11.06.2012

With reference to the above application, the Police object on the grounds that this notice would undermine the crime prevention objective. The reasons for the Police objection are as follows:- The police object to the application received for Decades as it would undermine all the licensable objectives. It is the belief of the police that should a notice be given then it would overrule all the conditions imposed on the premise licence.

The police would withdraw their objection if during the time that the temporary event notice was in force then all the conditions consistent with the operating schedule will apply.

Yours faithfully

Insp Colin Dobson
