

Adults Wellbeing and Health Overview and Scrutiny Committee

9 September 2010

Review of the Committee's Work Programme

Report of Lorraine O'Donnell, Assistant Chief Executive

Purpose of the Report

- 1 To present for consideration to Members an updated work programme for the Adults, Wellbeing and Health Overview and Scrutiny Committee.

Detail

- 2 At its meeting in July 2009, the Committee agreed to develop a Work Programme from 2009 – 2011 that focused on priority areas within the context of the Council Plan, Cabinet's Forward Plan of decisions, Sustainable Communities Strategy, the Local Area Agreement and other plans and strategies accordingly.
- 3 The Committee's Work Programme commenced in August 2009 and to date has considered and addressed a number of identified topics through review activity, overview presentations and quarterly performance and budget reports. Within this context it is of value to evaluate and ensure that the Committee's work programme is in line with current and forthcoming priorities within the Committee's remit.
- 4 Following discussion with Overview and Scrutiny Chairs and Vice Chairs, Cabinet Portfolios and lead officers from Service Groupings has identified a number of potential topics to be considered within the Committee's Work Programme during the forthcoming year.
- 5 The attached Work Programme details anticipated items to be considered by the Committee during 2010-2011.

Recommendations

- 6 Members are asked to agree the revised Work Programme
