

Police and Crime Panel

19th September 2024

Police and Crime Commissioner's Annual Report 2023-24

Report of the Police and Crime Commissioner

Purpose

1. For Panel Members to consider the Police and Crime Commissioner's (PCC) draft Annual Report 2023-24.

Background

2. The Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011 (Part 1, Chapter 3, Section 12) requires Police and Crime Commissioners (PCCs) to produce an Annual Report detailing:
  - The exercise of the PCC's functions in each financial year; and,
  - The progress which has been made in the financial year towards meeting the police and crime objectives in the PCC's Police and Crime Plan.
3. The Act requires Police and Crime Commissioners to attend a public meeting of the Police and Crime Panel to present the report to the panel and answer any questions on the report. In this instance this has been delegated to the deputy Police and Crime Commissioner.
4. Police and Crime Commissioners are required to give the Panel a response to any report or recommendations on the annual report and publish any such response.
5. Appendix two of this report contains the Draft Annual Report for 2023-24 for consideration by the Police and Crime Panel. The report includes the following content:
  - Key events and highlights in 2023-24.
  - Progress against the Police and Crime Plan 2021-24

6. The Final version of the Annual Report will be available primarily as an electronic document and will be circulated to members of the Police and Crime Panel. Printed copies will be made available upon request.

N.B Prior to publication, there will be some further amendments/additions including graphical changes.

Recommendation

7. That Panel Members consider the Draft Police and Crime Annual Report 2023-24 and comment accordingly.
