(produced 24th January 2017)

Consultation on Council Tax Police Precept 2017-18

Report of the Police, Crime and Victims' Commissioner

Purpose of report

1. The purpose of this report is to advise members of the Police and Crime Panel of my proposal for the policing element of the Council Tax Precept 2017 -18. Under Schedule 5 of the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011, the Police and Crime Panel is required to review the proposed precept, and to make a report on it (the panel are to determine the manner of this report). The report can include recommendations on the level of the precept. The panel has the power to veto the proposed precept, which requires a two-thirds majority in favour of a veto.
2. This report provides an update in relation to the consultation on my proposal, presents a summary of responses received so far and the expected outcome based on the feedback received. The papers for this meeting have been issued prior to the end of the consultation period but final results will be given at the meeting itself.

Background

3. I set out my proposals for the consultation on the policing element of Council Tax Precept for 2017-18 to members of the Police and Crime Panel at their meeting on 5th January 2016.

Precept Proposal

4. Subject to the conclusion of the consultation, I propose a precept increase of 1.98%.
5. A 1.98% increase will cost a Band D¹ property an additional 6p per week, which is £3.29 a year². However across County Durham and Darlington approximately 55% of households are categorised as 'Band A'. For a property in Band A the increase will cost an additional 4p per week, which is £2.20 per year². A full breakdown of what the increase means for each Council Tax Band is included in Appendix 2. This in turn will generate circa £560,000 for Durham Constabulary, which equates to the approximate annual cost of 11 police officers.
6. An increase of less than 1.98%, or keeping the precept at the current level, would result in a lower baseline going forward, meaning it would not be possible to recoup this money without a referendum. Each subsequent year's budget would be lower than it otherwise would be with the increase.

² Does not equal 4 x 52 because figures are rounded.

7. An increase of 2% or more would require a referendum, costing around £750,000. Therefore I would need to increase it by more than 5% to recoup the costs in the first year. And if such a referendum was lost, then that £750,000 would be irrecoverable.
8. Durham Constabulary works hard to provide value for money for the people it serves. Delivering an efficient policing service is one of the four key objectives in my Police and Crime Plan. In the recent HMIC PEEL Efficiency inspection, Durham Constabulary was the only force in the country to be graded as outstanding for all three questions.

Consultation

9. As set out in my last report to the Police and Crime Panel the consultation went live on the 6th January 2016 and will close at 11.59pm on Sunday 29th January 2016.
10. The consultation is running online, however hard copies are available from my office. It has been promoted by email, website, press release and through social media. The online survey sets out my proposal, details on what it would cost, and then asks respondents if they agree. Respondents are also given the chance to enter any additional comments that they may have. There is also the opportunity to download the detailed consultation document.
11. Details of the precept consultation have been widely circulated including to Elected Members, the County Durham Partnership, the Darlington Partnership, the Community Safety Partnerships, Town and Parish Councils, Area Action Partnerships (AAPs), the Voluntary and Community Sector, etc. for onward cascade and circulation.
12. I have undertaken consultation with the public through street walkabouts and drop-ins, attendance at several Area Action Partnership meetings in County Durham, and planned activity in Darlington. Where Area Action Partnership meetings did not fall within the consultation period the Coordinators have kindly shared details of the consultation with their Board and Forum Members. At all of the these events, members of the public have been invited to complete hard copies of the survey and signposted to my website to encourage them to share details of the consultation with colleagues

Responses

13. At the time of writing, the consultation is still live, and therefore we are unable to provide final results from the survey. There have been 197 responses to the online survey, roughly 75% of which support the proposed increase. Based on feedback from the public at the various community events which we have attended, there is strong support for the proposed rise.

Recommendations

14. The Panel is recommended to:
 - a. Note the current position of the consultation and the expected outcome;
 - b. Consider my proposal for a 1.98% precept increase;
 - c. Decide whether to veto my proposal.

15. This is with the understanding that the consultation is not yet complete, however, the consultation and responses will be finalised by the time of the panel meeting and I will be able to present the results in full at the meeting.
